| Educational component                       | Selective educational component № 9.1«Commercial mediation»  |
|---|--|
| Degree of higher education                  | First (Bachelor) level   |
| Name of specialty /                         | 292 International Economic Relations / International   |
| study programme                             | Business   |
| Mode of study                               | Full-time  |
| Year of studies, semester, duration         | 4 th year, 7 th semester, one-semester   |
| Semester control                            | Credit   |
| Number of hours (lectures and               | 150 (10/20), 5 credits ECTS  |
| seminars), credits                          |  |
| Language                                    | Ukrainian or English   |
| Department in charge                        | International Economic Relations and ProjectManagement   |
| Author of the selective educational         | PhD in Economics, Associate Professor of the Department  |
| component                                   | of International Economic Relations and Project  |
|   | Management Kateryna Dedeliuk   |
| Short description                           |  |
| Prerequisites                               | Basics of economics, law, conflictology  |
| What will be studied?                       | The essence, types and benefits of mediation;  |
|   | preconditions, stages and organization of commercial   |
|   | mediation; competencies and role of a mediator in  |
|   | resolving commercial disputes; work with cases;  |
|   | experience of countries in implementing mediation  |
|   | models.  |
| Why is it interesting and should be learnt? | Commercial mediation, as an alternative way of resolvingdisputes, is actively implemented in world practice.Studying the course will improve the understanding of theadvantages and peculiarities of mediation processorganization. It will also develop the basic practical skillsof a mediator, which are a must-have competence of aprofessional.   |
| What can be learnt? (study results)         | How to: understand the essence, benefits, format andstages of commercial mediation; understand the keycompetencies and tasks of a mediator in resolvingcommercial disputes; develop basic mediator skills basedon case studies and simulation of the mediation process;analyze the experience of countries in implementingmediation models and explore the prospects of intensifyingcommercial mediation in Ukraine. |
| How can the acquired knowledge and          | To be competent using of mediator tools in resolving   |
| skills (competences) be used?               | commercial disputes: work with interests, work withalternatives, work with numbers and financial disputeresolution, timing, visualization, verbal and nonverbalcommunication, documentation of the mediation process.  |
| Suggested readings                          | The course is based on the materials and practical recommendations of experts and practitioners of international mediation centers.  |