

Educational component	Elective educational component 3.2 «Political and legal systems of the world»
Level of higher education	First (bachelor) level
Name of specialty / educational-professional program	291 «International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies» / «International Relations»
Form of study	Full-time
Course, semester, duration	2nd year, 5th semester, 5 credits
Semester control	Credit
Number of hours (total: including lectures /practical)	150 hours (10 lectures, 20 practical)
Language of instruction	English
Department that provides teaching	Department of International Relations and Regional Studies
Author of the Educational component	PhD in Economic Sciences, Associate Professor, Oksana Pikulyk
Brief description
Requirements for the beginning of the study	Fundamentals of political science
What will be studied	The main political and legal institutions of the world, the links between them and a comparative analysis of their functioning
Why it is interesting / necessary to study	Gives a better idea of the essence of the political process, to see options for reforming and improving domestic institutions; better understand the key trends in modern democracy
Why you can learn (learning results)	Features of formation and functioning of political institutions and mechanisms in different countries of the world
How to use the acquired knowledge and skills (competencies)	Carry out analysis of political and legal systems; highlight their features, strengths and weaknesses