

Educational component	Elective educational component 4.2 «European interregional cooperation»
Level of higher education	First (bachelor) level
Name of specialty / educational-professional program	291 «International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies» / «International Relations»
Form of study	Full-time
Course, semester, duration	3 year, 6 semester, 5 credits
Semester control	Credit
Number of hours (total: including lectures / practical)	150 hours (10 lectures, 20 practical)
Language of instruction	English
Department that provides teaching	Department of International Relations and Regional Studies
Author of the Educational component	PhD in Economic Sciences, Associate Professor, Iłona Balak
Brief description
Requirements for the beginning of the study	Awareness of the need for regional development as a component of the effective functioning of European Union in general and international relations between regions in particular; desire for self-development; basic skills of modern educational and information communications.
What will be studied	Features of the EU' Cohesion policy in modern international relations
Why it is interesting / necessary to study	Covers the theoretical foundations of European regions development, the historical foundations of regions cooperation in EU. Ukraine and Volyn region are involved in cross-border cooperation, so it is interesting to know its results.
Why you can learn (learning results)	The applicant will be able to: - know and understand the nature of international relations and the role of European interregional cooperation in modern society; - have the skills to independently determine educational goals and study in EU policy of interregional cooperation; - distinguish and write CBC programs and projects.
How to use the acquired knowledge and skills (competencies)	The applicant obtains the ability to: - exercise their rights and responsibilities as a member of society; - preserve and increase the moral, cultural, scientific values and achievements of society based on understanding the history and patterns of regional development of the EU; - work in an international context; - generate new ideas (creativity); - apply knowledge in practical situations.