

Educational component	Elective educational component 8.1. «Diplomatic protocol and etiquette of the world countries»
Level of higher education	First (bachelor) level
Name of specialty / educational-professional program	291 «International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies» / «International Relations»
Form of study	Full-time
Course, semester, duration	3 year, 6 semester, 5 credits
Semester control	Credit
Number of hours (total: including lectures / practical)	150 hours (10 lectures, 20 practical)
Language of instruction	English
Department that provides teaching	Department of International Relations and Regional Studies
Author of the Educational component	PhD in Economic Sciences, Associate Professor, Oksana Pikulyk
Brief description
Requirements for the beginning of the study	Understanding the fundamentals of diplomacy and diplomatic work
What will be studied	The role of diplomatic protocol in international relations. The influence of cultural traditions on the diplomatic protocol of the world countries. Peculiarities of the European countries diplomatic protocol (Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy). The specifics and norms of the diplomatic protocol of Asian countries (Japan, China, India, Arab countries of the Middle East). US diplomatic protocol. National features of the diplomatic protocol of Latin American countries. Diplomatic protocol of African countries. National features of the diplomatic protocol of Ukraine.
Why it is interesting / necessary to study	The role of diplomacy, and therefore the diplomat, in view of the objective circumstances, has grown in our time. Diplomats in today's difficult conditions are called upon to find effective compromise formulas, unblock conflicts, prevent negative developments, and give impeccably balanced proposals and sound advice to governments and presidents. The study of this selective educational component is very important in the preparation of future diplomats who will advocate the national interests of Ukraine in various countries of the world. For effective communication, they need to know the specifics of the diplomatic protocol of the countries where they will work.
What you can learn (learning results)	Students should know: the concept of "diplomatic protocol" and related terms; the influence of culture on the formation of diplomatic protocol; national peculiarities of the diplomatic protocol of various countries of the world, including Ukraine. Students should be able to: understand the peculiarities of diplomatic protocol in different countries of the world; to possess the skills of analysis and interpretation of diplomatic documents that relate to the specifics of the diplomatic protocol of various countries of the world; use the knowledge and skills acquired during the study of this educational component in the future career; participate in the discourse on the diplomatic protocol of different world countries.

How to use the acquired knowledge and skills (competencies)	The acquired knowledge and practical skills can be used for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– implementation of information and analytical work for the purpose of preparation of information and analytical documents regarding the diplomatic activity of the states of the world;</li><li>– carrying out information and clarification campaigns regarding the national features of the diplomatic protocol of various countries of the world, including Ukraine (in educational activities);</li><li>– development of proposals regarding the use of national features of the diplomatic protocol when establishing relations with various countries of the world and forming a positive image of Ukraine on the international arena.</li></ul>
--	---