

Educational component	Optional educational component 4.2 «Interregional and interterritorial cooperation of Europe»
Level of Higher Education	Master
Specialty Name / Educational-Professional Program	291 «International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies» / «International Relations»
Form of Study	Full-time
Year, term, length	1st year, 2nd semester, 4 credits
Term assessment	Credit
Number of hours (total: including lectures / practical learning)	120 hours (10 lectures, 14 practical)
Language of instruction	English
Department	Department of International Relations and Regional Studies
The Course Author	Ilona Balak
Brief Description
Entry Requirements	Striving for self-development; basic skills of modern educational and information communications; understanding the need to develop international relations on different levels
What will be studied	Levels of cooperation, interregional, interterritorial cooperation
Why it is interesting / necessary to study	Regions in Europe are the important part of international relations development. Interregional and interterritorial cooperations of European states can be the best samples for Ukrainian ones
What you can learn (learning outcomes)	The applicant will be able to: - know the nature and peculiarities of the countries and regions interaction at the global, regional and local levels of international systems; - know the nature and mechanisms of interregional and interterritorial cooperation.
How to use the acquired knowledge and skills (competencies)	The applicant obtains the ability to: - work in the international context in the field of cross-border cooperation; - search, process and analyze of information from various sources to solve problems; - use information and communication technologies for the development of international relations; - generate new ideas (creativity) in the interregional and interterritorial cooperation; - apply knowledge in practical situations that arise on different levels of international relations.
Information Support / Web-link	Syllabus / curriculum of the course, publications in scientific publications / https://vnu.edu.ua/uk/faculties-and-institutes/fakultet-mizhnarodnikh-vidnosin